Fun night map of Tokushima

About 100 years ago, Tokushima was known as the home land of "Indigo".

And many of the merchants in Tokushima made fortunes from trading those related products. We would like to introduce shops that are located in exact same area that old merchants used to entertain customers and suppliers. All places contain full of individualities and still standing in the area: Tomidamachi where merchants spend money to share delicious dishes to communicate with customers, more Akitamachi, Ryogoku, Sakaemachi, and Takajyomachi all together makes the biggest entertainment district in Tokushima.
