Hotel Ridge＝Hon-Aizome Yano Kojo (Workshop Tour & Indigo Dyeing Experience) ＝Ryotei Shimada (Lunch at Japanese-style restaurant) ＝Awaodori Kaikan (Tour & Awaodori Experience) ＝ Hotel Ridge／Dinner & and a Performance of Ningyo Joruri, a traditional Japanese puppet show

Indigo Dyeing Experience at Hon-Aizome Yano Kojo ～JAPAN BLUE～

You can experience indigo dyeing at this indigo workshop which has inherited the method known as "formal indigo dyeing with natural lye fermentation." This way of indigo dyeing has not changed since the Edo period (1603-1868), and doesn't use any chemicals, only "Sukumo" (dye made of fermented indigo leaves). The dye is made by Akihito Sato, who has been designated as an intangible cultural asset and Contemporary Master Craftsman by the Japanese government.

Experience Culture of Awa & Lunch at Shimada

Kaiseki Ryori was originally served before the tea ceremony, but now is known as a traditional Japanese meal brought in courses. These dishes express the 4 seasons in Japan, not only with the food but also in the space (room) where you have it. At the same time with "geiko" you experience some of the culture of Awa (the old name for Tokushima), which the merchants of indigo once used to entertain their customers.

Experience of Awa-odori

Awa-odori is one of the traditional performing arts in Japan, and has a history of more than 400 years. You can experience the fascination of this tradition, its powerful energy, and its beautiful dancing - while creating a new "Awa-odori" performance on the stage with dancers who are also fashion models.

Watching the performance of Ningyo Joruri, a traditional Japanese puppet show at Hotel Ridge

The performance of Awa Ningyo Joruri (traditional puppet show) has moved many people, and has been loved for hundreds of years since the Edo period. You can feel the art of tradition with this special performance. The puppet show has been performed at the Noson Butai (Farming village stages), and the number of these existing stages in Tokushima is the highest in Japan.

Day3 Fri., March 13, 2020

Hotel Ridge＝Tokushima Castle Museum (Kimono Dressing Experience & Tea Ceremony& Iaido &Japanese swords) ＝ Kashino Club (Farewell Party)

See the performance of Iaido (art of drawing the Japanese sword), Japanese swords, and experience Kimono dressing and tea ceremony at Tokushima Castle Museum

It can be said that the "Bushido" is the origin of Japanese spirits, and one of the bases is "Iai" which began during the Age of Civil Wars (the Sengoku period: middle of 15th to the middle of 16th century) and the beginning of Edo period (17th century). You can see the performance this "Iaido" in front of you, and also look at real Japanese swords which were made by Japanese craftsmen with a master-hand. Have a relaxing time at a tea ceremony which includes sweets in a "Yusan-bako" (a kind of traditional Japanese style lunchbox for picnics), and a performance of the Japanese harp. You can also enjoy trying on a Kimono.

Japanese traditional sweets "WAGASHI"
